

Rising Star<sup>1</sup>

News of some of the Lord's work in Northern Peru

Strong Tower Christian School held its first “Parent University” meeting of the year and there was great attendance and participation. Domestic violence

Nina Mota, Strong Tower's
new principal

was the main topic, an issue all too common in Pueblo Nuevo, and we pray that the gospel given will change this harsh reality as families turn to Christ.

Are you still praying for teachers? We thank our divine Provider that we now have all our elementary teachers and volunteers to cover for traveling English teachers, but we continue to lack two preschool professionals. So pray on!

In April we also has the first “Entre Nosotras” (between us [women]) meeting. Wives and single girls were present, many of whom do not know the Lord personally, and we pray they will be back again and again, as well as acquiesce to the Lord's rulership of their lives.

Sweet Perla turned 12 last month and days later she was adopted by a nice couple from the jungle. Her new parents are not believers yet, but Sunday Dad called to ask for a suggestion for a good church to attend that Perla would like. =) Pray that Perla will acclimate easily to her new environment and that she will be a strong light for her Savior.

There is also a bit of building going on at Morningstar- an enclosed multipurpose room planned to facilitate washing clothes on the first floor (with a slab and clotheslines out back), and cooking and seating for large groups. This will provide a somewhat mosquito-free zone for teams and other groups.

And speaking of teams, we are expecting three this year, and the first one arrives at the end of this month. Remember their needs and ministry in your prayers as well.

We thank our gracious Savior and Lord for all He is doing. May His name be magnified without ceasing.

The Staff at Morningstar

Please visit <http://www.morningstarperu.org/subscription.html> should you wish to subscribe to this publication.