TEAM EFFORT

Daily we are privileged to observe how the Lord of the Vineyard provides just the right people at just the right times to fulfill the ministry He is directing here. One of the teachers at Strong Tower Christian School resigned suddenly due to family and ministry demands and yet the teaching schedule will be able to be covered as the Lord had already moved into place volunteers that will be assisting through the end of the 2012 school year. Katie Van Ameyde arrived in January of 2011 planning to stay for a month. A year and a half later she is tearing herself away to return home to Canada to continue her education. She has been a tremendous asset in all aspects of the ministry here and will be sorely missed. Also departing this month is Bekkah Gebers whose two month stay has been a great help and also an encouragement to her sister Hannah who serves here fulltime. Last week we were happy to welcome Linda Avallone and her daughter Rachel from New Mexico, Linda will be returning home next week while Rachel will stay on until the middle of December to finish out the school year at Strong Tower as well as helping with the children at Morningstar.

Jon & Laura Halder from Illinois are with us for two weeks and have assumed the role of house parents at Morningstar allowing Alberto & Rosa Saldaña and their family to take a much needed break during the mid year school holidays, classes resume August 13th.

Elizabeth Thomas from Florida will be joining us next week and will be involved as well in both Strong Tower and Morningstar through the middle of December. We are so very thankful we serve a sovereign and well organized God who oversees our every need. Thank you for your interest and support of the ministry here.
